Commercial experience: over 4 years. For the last 3 years I was working as the only frontend developer in the team, which taught me to understand the areas of responsibility and set fair assessments of tasks.

Besides my main work, I am actively studying the typescript+react stack, and I am going to switch to it.

I am engaged in teaching several students, which helps me to keep my knowledge in good shape.

I am fond of cycling and it is a great way to recharge my batteries!
